Ballot Room Courageous Conversations: Can We Talk about Race?

There have been acts of discrimination and violence in the Goffstown community and around the state. They demonstrate the need to bring to consciousness previously unexamined attitudes about persons who may not experience full inclusion in our communities, whether that discrimination is stated or implied. This project consisted of lectures, book readings & discussions, art exhibitions, and community conversations held in various locations to help people in the community live fuller lives being able to interact across differences in race, creed, and color. Sponsored and implemented by St. Anselm College, the Episcopal Church of New Hampshire, the Goffstown Public Library, Granite State Organizing Project (GSOP), and others.

Presenters: Dianne Hathaway (Director, Goffstown Public Library), Gwen Verkuilen (Librarian, Geisel Library, St. Anselm College), Dr. Deborah McCarter (Professor of Nursing, St. Anselm College), and James McKim (Co-Chair, St. Matthews Church Social Justice Committee).

Ballot Room Library Administration 101: What you're supposed to know but were never taught

Whether you have earned an MLIS, MLS, or worked your way into a Library administration role there is always a common challenge; you don't know what you don't know, but it's required! We will discuss some of these obstacles; (e.g. budgeting, security, facilities, advocacy, and community partnerships) and the best way to cope with learning how to run a library on the fly.

The Oval Roundtable: ILL/NHUPAC- Facilitated by ULAC

Golden Pond Supporting Paraprofessional Staff

A discussion led by Eileen Gilbert, Director of the Belmont Public Library, Sarah Cornell, Supervisor of Technical Services of the Portsmouth Public Library, and Corrine Chronopoulos, Director of the Peterborough Public Library, which is specifically for directors and supervisors about how to support paraprofessional/non- MLS staff in pursuit of New Hampshire Paralibrarian Certification. The speakers will share their insights on incentives for paraprofessional staff to pursue the certificate, and address topics of interest from the attendees about ways to engage our paraprofessional staff with library-specific continuing education.

Code of Conduct:

The New Hampshire Library Association (NHLA) is dedicated to providing a positive conference experience for everyone. We invite you to help us make our conference a place that is welcoming and respectful to all participants. We value ideas, thoughts and expression, and we appreciate varying approaches when delivering workshops and sessions. Discriminatory language and imagery is not appropriate for any event venue, including talks, workshops, sessions or any community event online or in a face to face environment.

Participants are expected to maintain a professional demeanor and treat other participants with respect. Any participant who is asked to stop any intimidating or harassing behavior must comply immediately. Event organizers may take action to address any activity that may disrupt the event or make the environment uncomfortable or hostile for participants.

If at any time a presenter, guest, delegate or visitor feels that they, or others, have been harassed or that this code of conduct has been breached, it is important to report it as soon as possible to a member of the NHLA Conference Committee or Executive Board.
